

Contents

Figures and Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Contributors	xi
Chapter 1: Contours of EU Peripheries in a Shifting Geopolitical Landscape: The Perspectives of Political Elites	1
Ali Onur Özçelik, Miruna Butnaru Troncotă, Radu-Alexandru Cucută and Oana-Andreea Ion
PART I. THE EU'S 'INNER PERIPHERIES'	31
Chapter 2: Perceptions of Hungarian Political Elites of the EU's Foreign and Security Policy during the War in Ukraine	33
Melek Aylin Özoflu and Krisztina Arató
Chapter 3: The Ambivalent 'Eurosceptics' of the EU's 'Inner Periphery': Assessing Perceptions of the EU among Political Elites in Romania during Turbulent Times	55
Miruna Butnaru Troncotă and Radu-Alexandru Cucută
PART II. THE PERIPHERALITY OF EU ACCESSION CANDIDATES	99
Chapter 4: Cha(lle)nging Peripherality: 'Critical Expectation Gaps' and EU-Ukraine Relations in the Post-Euromaidan Perceptions of Ukrainian Political Elites	101
Roman Kalytchak and Andriy Tyushka

Chapter 5: Republic of Moldova: The Challenges of a Periphery’s Shifting Identity, from the Russian Federation’s Sphere of Influence to EU Accession	155
Nicolae Toderaş and Daniel Pascal
Chapter 6: Rather Lukewarm: Shifting Perceptions towards the EU among Bosnia and Herzegovina’s Political Elites	183
Hatidža Jahić and Adnan Muminović
Chapter 7: Perceiving ‘Europe’ in Dire Times: Elite Perceptions of European Integration in Turkish Politics after the 2010s	209
Başak Alpan and Ali Onur Özçelik
PART III. THE PERIPHERALITY OF POTENTIAL CANDIDATE COUNTRIES	235
Chapter 8: From Dreaming of to Dealing with Europe: How the Political Elite in Georgia Frames and Contests the EU	237
David Aprasidze
Chapter 9: The Ambivalence of Kosovo–EU Relations in the Last Decade: The Perspective of Kosovo’s Political Elites	259
Bardhok Bashota, Dren Gërguri and Leonora Bajrami
Conclusion: Reconsidering EU Accession in the EU’s Peripheries: The Ambivalence of Elite Disillusionment and Contestation in Troubled Times	287
Ali Onur Özçelik, Miruna Butnaru Troncotă and Radu-Alexandru Cucută
Index	300