

CONTENTS

|          |  |            |
|----------|--|------------|
| 1 | Perspectives on the Significance of Borders in Europe:Past Challenges, Future Developments | 1   |
|          | Antonina Bakardjieva Engelbrekt, Per Ekman,Anna Michalski, and Lars Oxelheim                       |            |
| 2 | EU Border Policy: Enhanced Border Securityand Challenges to Free Movement                  | 23  |
|          | Johanna Pettersson Fürst   |            |
| 3 | The Return of Borders in the World Economy:An EU-Perspective                               | 49  |
|          | Fredrik Sjöholm  |            |
| 4 | The Boundaries of the Internal Market In-and Outside the EU                                | 73  |
|          | Marja-Liisa Öberg  |            |
| 5 | EU Norm Promotion in a Conflictual World.An Existential Necessity with Obstacles?          | 93  |
|          | Ann-Kristin Jonasson   |            |
| 6 | The Ability of the EU to Extend Its Model of a SocialMarket Economy Beyond Its Borders     | 119 |
|          | Pär Hallström  |            |

|           |  |            |
|-----------|--|------------|
| 7  | The EU's Dependence on Russian Energy—A Force that Divides or Unites the Union?                   | 147 |
|           | Torbjörn Becker and Anders Åslund  |            |
| 8  | The EU's Fight against Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing in a Digital and Fragmented World | 177 |
|           | Maria Bergström  |            |
| 9  | The European Security Order   | 205 |
|           | Kjell Engelbrekt   |            |
| 10 | A European Marshall Plan for Ukraine on the Way to the EU   | 233 |
|           | Anders Åslund and Torbjörn Becker  |            |
| 11 | The EU's Internal and External Borders in a World Torn by Conflict                                | 261 |
|           | Antonina Bakardjieva Engelbrekt, Per Ekman, Anna Michalski, and Lars Oxelheim                            |            |
|           | Index   | 285 |